[illegible] Robert [illegible] just [illegible] try.

[illegible] have that the [illegible] most elevated [illegible] noblest [illegible] pretensions [illegible] positions [illegible] for which they [illegible] Congressional Cabinet honors, these [illegible] were [illegible] and military [illegible] braved the flag of their country and [illegible] gathered it [illegible] them [illegible] tunity rebelled the Government [illegible] those who were on foreign diplomatic service [illegible] their positions to the greatest possible injury of the nation, and if there were any exception of honorable conduct [illegible] them [illegible] those [illegible] and have [illegible] All [illegible] party [illegible] ment of [illegible] they seem [illegible] have supposed that [illegible] would make no serious attempt [illegible] them by force, and that a great people [illegible] travel and [illegible] would accept the [illegible] fate prepared for it. When they awoke from this stupid dream their first sort was very naturally to an exhibition of the quality of their heroism and their wail of "No coercion" sounded through the land, echoed back by the concerted cry of their secret allies in the loyal States. Peace, on any terms with our hands at their throat! Their next sort most naturally was a manifestation of the reality of their United confidence in their cause. This also they exhibited in a manner perfectly characteristic. Emissaries were dispatched to all foreign nations, embracing even the distracted Government south of us, and not forgetting even our Indian tribes or the Mormon kingdom. Every where, under the sun, where the least help seemed attainable, by whatever means they supposed might be effectual, they eagerly sought it. Sometimes by menaces and sometimes by solicitations, sometimes seeking alliances, sometimes offering everything, sometimes begging for anything—even for a king if they could get nothing better. But always and everywhere, help was what they wanted! Help against their own country, which they had betrayed! Oh! patriots! Help against their own people, whom they professed to have terrified, and to be able to subdue! Oh! heroes! A more shameful record does not disfigure the history of sedition.

The Cause of War

It [illegible] the [illegible] election of [illegible] of the war [illegible] were [illegible] Mr Crittenden [illegible] prevent [illegible] the people of the free States [illegible] humiliated themselves [illegible] South

What [illegible] meets with [illegible] rebels of the South [illegible] contemplated [illegible] for thirty years [illegible] was caused by the [illegible] they knew that [illegible] in the Presidential election [illegible] determined [illegible] would [illegible] for Douglas [illegible] during the whole administration of President Buchanan they were active in making arrangements for [illegible] rebellion [illegible] about the passage of Mr Crittenden's [illegible] tions—that they could have [illegible] they chose [illegible] and that they would not consent to peace and compromise [illegible] sheet of paper was presented to them on which they could write the terms [illegible] known to all men and yet the [illegible] rebels in the free States are [illegible] ing that the election of Lincoln caused the rebellion and that the adoption of Crittenden's resolutions would have [illegible]

What Mr Crittenden thought of this war and its authors is well expressed in the resolutions he offered and which were approved by the House of Representatives July 22 1861—only two members voting in the negative

"Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States That the present deplorable civil war has been forced upon the country by the disunionists of the Southern States, now in revolt against the constitutional government and in arms around the Capital

That in this national emergency Congress, banishing all feelings of mere passion or resentment will recollect only its duty to the whole country

That this war is not waged on their part in any spirit of oppression, nor for any purpose of conquest or subjugation, nor purpose of overthrowing or interfering with the rights or established institutions of those States but to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution and to preserve the Union with all the dignity, equality and rights of the several States unimpaired; and that as soon as these objects are accomplished the war ought to cease"

The statesman, patriot, soldier, John J Crittenden is now in the ranks of the Union forces of Kentucky—tendering his life in support of the doctrines of these resolutions

FROM JACKSONVILLE—ANOTHER FLOOD—By last night's mail we received the Sentinel of Jan 25th Another flood has swept the valley, doing immense damage On the 21st eight inches of snow fell, and it continued to rain and snow all the week The streams rose as high as they had been this winter A tannery at Phoenix had been swept away, and a fine flouring mill [illegible] over the water The roads were impassable and the amount of damage done in the valley cannot be ascertained Cattle had suffered from the severity of the weather Numbers lie [illegible] on the hills and valleys surrounding Jacksonville

Wm M Hand has withdrawn from the Sentinel and O Jacobs Esq has taken editorial charge It will continue to be a staunch Union sheet

A meeting was held at Jacksonville on the 18th to ascertain the practicability of a wagon road to the Salmon river mines On man said a pack train could go there in fifteen days Messrs McDaniels and Ballard were authorized to organize a company of volunteers to examine the route

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

Common Council.—Council met on Friday [illegible], the President in the Chair. [illegible] Holmes, [illegible]

[illegible]

A motion to take from the table the resolution of January 19th, authorizing the Street Commissioner to place convenient steps at the crossing of Salmon and Front streets, was lost.

U. S. District Court—M. P. Deady, Justice.—David Waling vs. the Sloop Christina—cause civil and maritime, for the subtraction of wages.

The libel in this case alleges that the libellant shipped as seaman on the sloop Christina at Port Townsend, in Washington Territory, on the 28th of October, 1861, on a voyage from said port to Bellingham Bay, thence to Portland, in Oregon, and back to the point of departure: that the contract of shipment between the libellant and the master, George Thompson, was, that the sloop should purchase a cargo of apples and return with the same to Port Townsend, and that libellant should have one-third of the profit of said cargo of apples for his wages: that no shipping articles were signed: that the vessel proceeded to Bellingham Bay and Portland in ballast: that the master did not purchase the cargo of apples, but kept the sloop lying at Portland until the 17th of December, 1861, when she left on a voyage to Shoalwater Bay, and elsewhere, without notice to libellant, and without the payment of his wages: that the libellant remained on the sloop from the 28th of October aforesaid until the 17th of December, 1861, and during that period was obedient to the orders of the master, and performed his duty as a seaman.

His Honor, on Saturday, after hearing the testimony presented in the above case, rendered a judgment in favor of libellant for one month and two third's wages, in the sum of fifty dollars and costs of suit.

For the Dalles.—Messrs. Tracy & Co. will dispatch a letter express to the Dalles this morning at eight o'clock.

Malicious.—We learn that some mean person or persons went to the house of Mr. J. Kendall, some eighteen miles from Oregon City, on last Thursday night, entered the stable, and destroyed two setts of harness and two or three saddles, belonging to some guests of the house, who were enjoying a little dance. Some men resort to low and contemptible tricks for the gratification of personal enmity.

Col. Cornelius designs to establish two camps of instruction for the Volunteer Cavalry; one south of the Calapooia mountains, and the other in this valley.

Tribute of Respect.—At the last regular meeting of Multnomah Engine Co. No. 2, held on Thursday evening, 6th inst., the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, It has pleased God, in his infinite wisdom, to remove from our midst our late companion and associate, I. E. Jacobs, therefore

Resolved, That in his death we have lost a valuable member of our Company, who was always prompt, active and efficient in the performance of his duty both as an officer and as a member.

Resolved, That in his decease in the midst of a career of usefulness to himself and his fellow men, society has lost an estimable and worthy citizen.

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with the widow and family of our deceased friend in their bereavement.

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered on the minutes, and Resolved, That a copy be furnished the family of deceased, and be published in the daily papers of the city.

BEN. L. NORDEN, Sec'y.

Portland, Feb. 8, 1862.

Board of Delegates.—The Board of Delegates of the P. F. D. will meet this evening at 6½ o'clock precisely.

W. A. DALY, Sec'y.

Agency Notice.—Mr. L. P. FISHER is our only authorized Agent in San Francisco to receive advertisements, and transact business for the DAILY and WEEKLY OREGONIAN. Office—No. 171½ Washington street, nearly opposite Maguire's Opera House.

Southward, Ho!

[The following grand and warlike poem is taken from Porter's Spirit of the Times. It undoubtedly breathes the spirit animating millions of freemen.]

[illegible]

The glowing light of the [illegible]
Blazed and bloomed like a [illegible]

Southward ho! [illegible]
[illegible]
When the countless ships [illegible]
Spread their wings [illegible]
Joyfully from the [illegible]
The frozen fiords and [illegible]
They turned their prows to the summer seas
Which in the unknown [illegible]
Down on the lands where the [illegible]
Reaped their [illegible]
They bore the name of the mighty [illegible]
And the martial joy of the [illegible]
And up from a thousand [illegible]
From the Northern giants [illegible]
Springs the power which has [illegible]
Ocean-queen of the West [illegible]

Southward ho! how the grand old war-cry
Thunders over our land to day
Rolling down from our Eastern mountains
Dying into the West away
The South has fallen from her ancient glory
Bowed in slavery, crime, and shame
And forth from his storehouse [illegible]
Another tempest of steel and flame

Southward Ho! bear on the [illegible]
Onward march, as in ancient days
Till over the traitor's fallen fortress
The Stripes shall stream and the Stars shall blaze
For the Northern arm is mailed with thunder
And the Northern heart beats high and warm
And a stronger life shall spring in glory
In the path of the Southward rushing storm
The ancient wrongs shall shriek and perish
The darkness fly from the radiant van
And a mightier empire rise in grandeur
For Freedom Truth and the Rights of Man
Ever thus when in future ages
Manhood falls on the tropic plains,
Send, oh God, thy Northern giants
To pour fresh blood through their feeble veins!

A Vision of Hell.

Lieutenant General Cockburn in his Voyage up the Mediterranean, gives the following remarkable extract of the Court of King's Bench for the years 1687—1688

"An action was brought by Mrs Booty against Captain Barnaby, to recover £1000 as damages for the scandal of his assertion that he had seen her deceased husband, Mr Booty, a receiver, driven into hell

The journal books of three different ships were produced in court, and the following passages, recorded in each submitted to the court by the defendant's counsel

Thursday, May 15th, 1687. Saw the island of Lapari, and came to an anchor off the same island, and there we were at W S W

Friday, May 15 [illegible] Captain Barnaby, Capt Bristow, Captain Brown, I, and a Mr Ball, merchant, went on shore to shoot rabbits on Stromboli, and when we had done, we called all our men together to us, and about three quarters past three o'clock we all saw two men running toward us with such swiftness, that no living man could run half so fast, when we all of us heard Captain Barnaby say, Lord bless us! the foremost is old Booty my next door neighbor,' but he said he did not know the other, who ran behind, he was in black clothes, the foremost was in gray Then Captain Barnaby desired all of us to take an account of the time, and pen it down in our pocket-books, and when we got on board we wrote it in our journals, for we saw them run into the flames of fire, and there was a great noise, which greatly affrighted us all, for we none of us ever saw or heard the like before Captain Barnaby said, 'he was certain it was old Booty which he saw running over Stromboli, and into the flames of hell'

Then, coming home to England and lying at Gravesend, Captain Barnaby's wife came on board the 6th day of October 1687 at which time Captain Barnaby and Captain Brown sent for Captain Bristow and Mr Ball, merchant, to congratulate with them, and after some discourse, Captain Barnaby's wife started up and said, 'My dear, old Booty is dead,' and he directly made answer 'we all saw him run into hell' Afterwards Captain Barnaby's wife told a gentleman of his acquaintance in London what her husband had said, and he went and acquainted Mrs Booty of the whole affair, upon that Mrs Booty arrested Captain Barnaby in a £1000 action for what he had said of her husband Captain Barnaby gave bail for it and it came to a trial in the Court of King's Bench, and they had Mr Booty's wearing apparel brought into court, and the sexton of the parish, and the people that were with him when he died, and we swore to our journals, and it came to the same time within two minutes Ten of our men swore to the buttons on his coat, and that they were covered with with the same sort of cloth his coat was made of and so it proved

The jury asked Mr Spinks (whose handwriting in the journal that happened to be read, appeared) if he knew Mr Booty? He answered, 'I never saw him till he ran by me on the burning mountains'

The judge said 'Lord have mercy on me, and grant I may never see what you have seen One, two, or three may be mistaken but thirty never can be mistaken.' So the widow lost her cause The defence set up was that the defendant had spoken no more than had been seen by a number of persons as well as himself

Of all the causes the first great cause,
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases, Self-Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Disease, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment [illegible] has baffled the skill of eminent physicians and resisted all their means of cure. [illegible] medicines are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands who, in the last stages of the above [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] of patients [illegible] [illegible]—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which with the disease [illegible] the sufferer into a rapid consumption, [illegible] and the [illegible] the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitution, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering, down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, [illegible] [illegible] patients to a [illegible] health.

The [illegible] [illegible] males and females treated at [illegible] [illegible] thousands of the [illegible] [illegible] Medicines with full directions sent to any part of the State [illegible] Washington Territory by patients [illegible] [illegible] letter.

All business strictly confidential. Address DR L J CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co's Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief

[illegible] we publish the certificates of three of those sufferers from the pangs of disease who have recovered their former health, and impelled by gratitude make known their cases and remedial agent. All their statements are [illegible] before a Notary Public. The [illegible] of society [illegible] importance [illegible] [illegible] their [illegible] the attention of the afflicted.

Certificate The undersigned, [illegible] [illegible] this who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr L J Czapkay for the [illegible] recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practices of uncontrollable passion in youth; depressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the ordinary avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance—but alas, after a few weeks and in several instances months of their treatment I found my unutterable [illegible] symptoms became more alarming [illegible] [illegible] by one that [illegible] the [illegible] medicine would [illegible] the consequence. [illegible] of ever regaining my health, strength and energy, and as a last resort, and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr Czapkay, who, after examining my case, prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice my head became clear, and my ideas collected, the constant pain in my back and groins, the weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my whole body [illegible] [illegible], the misanthropy and evil forebodings, the self distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study and want of resolution, the frightful exciting, and at times pleasurable dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges have all disappeared and in fact in two months after having consulted the doctor I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand. With this [illegible] to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience, that once under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected.
